

Curriculum Vitae

Experience

1995-present Mediator, arbitrator and ADR provider in private practice, working for private parties as well as in connection with the Superior Courts of San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, Santa Clara, Marin, and San Mateo Counties, the U.S. District Court (N.D. Cal.), the First District Court of Appeal (Cal. App.), and the Independent Administrator for Kaiser Permanente arbitrations.

I have conducted over a thousand mediations, as well as many arbitrations and neutral evaluations, in a diverse array of disputes, generally in the context of commercial litigation but in other settings as well. Issues raised include breach of contract, partnership, employment, real estate, real estate partition, insurance coverage/bad faith, fraud and other business torts, professional negligence and fee disputes, intellectual property, construction, probate, securities, consumer fraud, landlord-tenant, personal injury, note collection and work out, defamation, civil rights, embezzlement, simultaneous civil and criminal proceedings, and others.

I have a flexible style in which I try to adjust to the needs of the parties and the situation, as opposed to using a single approach for every dispute. I have been trained in different techniques from which I can select and adjust as appropriate. Most of the matters I have worked on have been in litigation with attorneys participating, but I have also handled matters directly between disputants without attorneys. I consult with all participants concerning how best to conduct each proceeding.

2000-2005 Adjunct Assistant Professor of Law, Hastings College of Law, teaching Alternative Dispute Resolution and Negotiation & Settlement courses

1981-1994 Litigator with Keker & Van Nest (formerly Keker & Brockett and Keker, Brockett & Van Nest). 1990-1993 Managing Partner.

I represented clients in a variety of disputes, including commercial cases concerning insurance coverage and bad faith, real estate, employment, partnership, securities, contract, fraud and other business torts, work outs, defamation, and civil rights and criminal defense. My practice was split evenly between representing plaintiffs and defendants. I handled cases in trial before both federal and California state courts, as well as matters before appellate courts and both the California and the United States Supreme Courts.

Reported cases include Neary v. Regents, 3 Cal. 4th 273 (1992), and NORML v. Mullen, 828 F. 2d 536 (9th Cir. 1987).

1979-1980 Judicial Law Clerk to Chief United States District Judge Edward T. Gignoux, D. Maine.
