

CREATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

225 East Carrillo Street, Suite 202
Santa Barbara, California 93101
(805) 963-8789

mediation
settlement conference arbitrations

private & speedy mini-trials
pro-tem decisions

PAUL D. FRITZ, ESQ.

- MEMBERSHIPS: California State Bar Association, admitted 1972;
Numerous County Bar Associations, 1973 to present;
U.S. District Court, Central District of California;
U.S. Court of Appeals, 9th Circuit;
American Arbitration Association, Panel of Arbitrators, 1986 to 1988;
Association for Conflict Resolution (ex-SPIDR), 1988 to present;
American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), 2005 to present.
- EDUCATION: Loyola University of Los Angeles, School of Law
Juris Doctor, June 1972. Dean's List second and third years.
University of California at Los Angeles
Degree: Bachelor of Arts, History, 1964.
- PROFESSIONAL: March 1986 to Present
Creative Dispute Resolution, Founder. Mediator.
Martindale-Hubbell "av" rated.
- August 1973 to January 1986
Partner, Archbald & Spray, Santa Barbara, CA.
Civil Trial Attorney emphasizing Personal Injury,
Professional Negligence, Public Entity, Insurance
Defense cases, with some Plaintiffs' cases.
- October 1972 to June 1973
Law Clerk to the Honorable Lawrence T. Lydick, Judge, U.S. District Court, Central District, Los Angeles, CA.
- October 1970 to June 1972
Loyola University of Los Angeles, School of Law.
Research Assistant to Leo J. O'Brien, Dean of Law School. Dean's list last two years.
- MILITARY: September 1965 to January 1969
Lt., U.S. Coast Guard.
- TEACHING: Master, Inns of Court, Santa Barbara and Ventura Chapters.
Pepperdine University School of Law, Adjunct Professor, 1989.
Santa Barbara College of Law, Adjunct Professor, 1987-1990.
Santa Barbara Community College, Lecturer, Civil Cases.
- SPEAKER: California Trial Lawyers' Association, December 1993.
Los Angeles Trial Lawyers' Association, March 1990.
Association of Southern California Defense Counsel, 1988, 1991, and 1998.
By invitation to insurance companies, plaintiff and defense firms.