

Susan H. Nycum

Susan H. Nycum, Esq (susan@nycum.net.) provides arbitration and mediation services in domestic and international IP and technology related disputes.

Susan Nycum was formerly an international partner of Baker & McKenzie and chair of the firm's North America Intellectual Property (IP) and Information Technology (IT) practice group, a coordinator of the firm's global IT practice group and a member of the firm's governing bodies for North America and for Asia Pacific.

She has been an advisor to the governments of Brazil, Canada, Finland, Germany, India, Israel, Singapore, Thailand and the United States for IP and IT policy.

Susan Nycum is the former Chair of the ABA section of Science and Technology and former President of the ITECH Law Association. She was the Chair of the International Bar Association committee on software protection and committee on computer crime. She was twice the ABA appointee to the National Conference of Lawyers and Scientists. She is a member of the IP panel, the Commercial panel and the Large Complex Case panel of the American Arbitration Association, CPR technology and IP panel, fellow of the College of Commercial Arbitrators, fellow of the American Bar Foundation, fellow of the ACM, and member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. She is listed in the Best Lawyers of America and the Northern California Super Lawyers.